If you have good thoughts they will shine out of your face like sunbeams and you will always look lovely. –Roald Dahl

With Christmas around the corner and the year coming to a close, I reflect on all the wonderful activities that have taken place over the past few months. Here is a brief account of some of these events. In August, the children partook in our annual recycling competition; this is held to promote recycling with an emphasis on creativity and innovation. Our four judges – Nzinga Nzinga, Elivs Aboluah, Ruth McDowall, and Kwadjo Opoku – had a tough time picking the winners.

Pictured below, is one of the outstanding creations from the recycling competition which was created by Desmond Mensah (10years).

On September 10, we held a sponsored walk.

It was a great accomplishment, thank you to everyone who supported this event.

On October 29, we held our annual Spelling Bee, although it was a tough competition the children did well.

Pictured below, are the winners of the event. Special thanks to Amy Hermkes, Kelly Rayamah, and Nicole & Wynard Hamilton, that supported us with wonderful prizes.

We are now preparing for our Christmas production and other December events. This year we hope to spread the joy of Christmas to many.

I take this opportunity to thank all our precious donors, I'm humbled by all we've accomplished this year through the generosity of you all. Thank you and God bless.

Warm regards,

Jeanette Brown Opoku

The children in Group B recently studied the Rainforest and its ecosystem. They made a fantastic group project using a cardboard box. To finish the module they visited a nearby Rainforest. (Photo left)
